

Tai Chi Union for Great Britain

GUIDELINES FOR MEMBERS APPLICATIONS

A. Personal Details

All members should complete as much of this section as possible.

B. Training History

This section should contain full details of your training history, who your teachers were, how long you trained with each one and what aspects of internal arts you have studied. Please attach any supporting information you may have.

C: Information on School

Please include your school name (if you have one), the aspects of internal arts that you are teaching and the aspects of internal arts that you can perform in a competent manner.

Please have each aspect you are competent in co-signed by your instructor(s).

If your referring instructor is currently a Full Instructor Member of the TCUGB his/her signature would be sufficient evidence of your competence. If your referring instructor is not a Full Instructor Member of the TCUGB then you would be required to attend an assessment meeting with one of our approved assessors. The current charge for this service is £25.00.

Include full detail of the geographical area in which you teach. This information will be included on our web site.

D. Other Information

Please provide an outline of your reasons for applying to become an Instructor Member of the TCUGB.
